4. Does your facility have an IMMEDIATE PPE and/or medical resource need?

The data reported to the Department and its designees under this Mandatory Reporting Order is confidential under Iowa law and may not be redisclosed except as expressly authorized by law. Specifically, the patient tracking data (numbers 1 - 6) as reported by each hospital are confidential pursuant to Iowa Code sections 139A.3(2) and 22.7(2) and (16). The hospital capacity (numbers 3 - 11) and resources data (numbers 1 - 4) are confidential pursuant to Iowa Code section 22.7(50), as this data constitutes information concerning physical infrastructure, critical infrastructure, and emergency preparedness developed, maintained, or held by the Department for the protection of life or property.

You are receiving this confidential data (attached to this email) as the Department has determined that it is necessary for your agency or organization to have access to this data in order to perform response and mitigation duties related to the COVID 19 outbreak. 641 IAC 1.17(3)(a) - (d), (f), 175.10(2)(a), (e). Confidential data provided to you pursuant to these legal authorities shall continue to maintain its confidential status and shall not be re-released by you or your agency or organization.

By accessing and using this data you agree to the following provisions: You shall limit access to this data to only those personnel who require access for the purposes of conducting response and mitigation duties related to the COVID 19 outbreak. You shall not gather, copy, store, log, archive, use, or otherwise retain such data or records for any purpose other than response and mitigation duties related to the COVID 19 outbreak. All data provided to you for purposes of providing response and mitigation duties are confidential and all such data and records shall be held by you in the strictest confidence. In addition, you are prohibited from gathering, storing, logging, accessing, archiving, using, copying, removing, retaining, disclosing, distributing, forwarding, selling, exploiting, sharing, renting, assigning, leasing, transferring, or disseminating such data or records in any manner other than as expressly authorized or contemplated by this release of data for response and mitigation duties related to the COVID 19 outbreak.
